La Palma Congratulates Isaac Kim on Eagle Scout Rank

LA PALMA, Calif. – Mayor Michele Steggell and the City of La Palma congratulated Isaac Kim, a member of Boy Scout Troop 670, on earning the rank of Eagle Scout.

Issac Kim has been awarded 35 merit badges that include First Aid, Lifesaving, Space Exploration, Citizenship in the Community and more. In addition to Boy Scouts, Isaac has been a member of the National Honor Society, John F. Kennedy High School Key Club, Science Club and Liberty in North Korea Club. Isaac's Eagle Scout project was refurbishing the Recreation Room at Christ Community Church by repainting the room and installing siding. Isaac will graduate from John F. Kennedy High School in June and plans to pursue a career in Business and Computer Engineering after college.

Earning the rank of Eagle Scout is not an easy achievement. It requires years of dedication to the Boys Scouts earning required merit badges, living by the Scout Oath, and serving in a leadership capacity in their troops. Additionally, to earn the rank of Eagle Scout, the candidate must locate a project that is desired by a local organization. The project must be at least a full day of work and the Eagle Scout candidate must obtain the equipment and other personnel to assist in completing the project.
