Resolutions

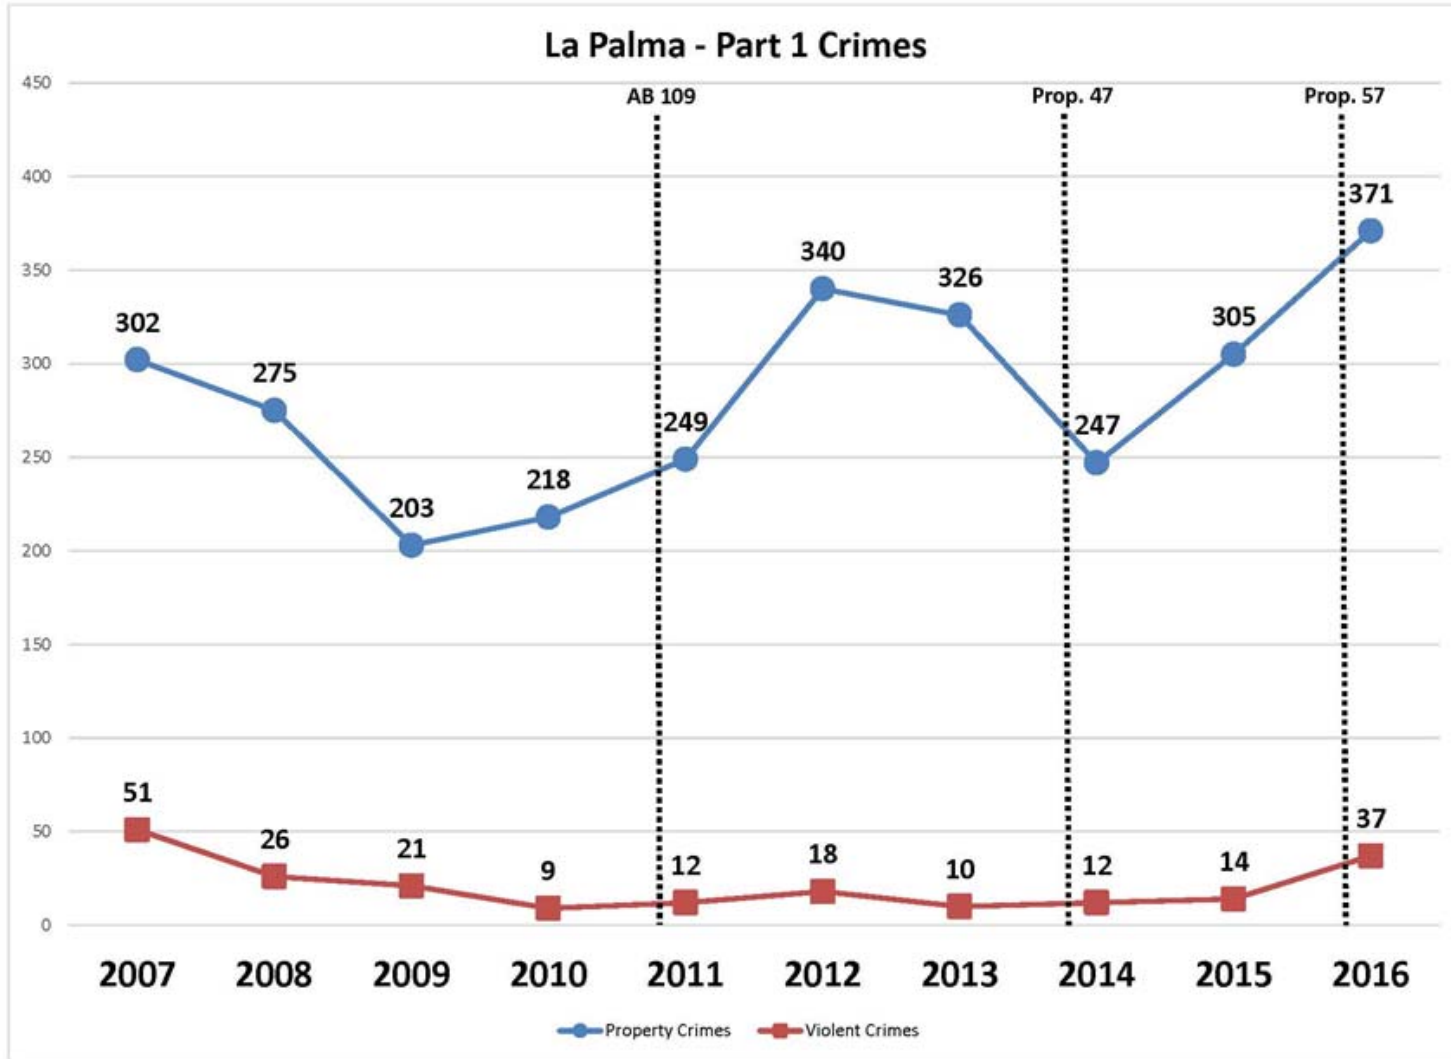

Resolution of the League of California Cities calling upon the Governor and Legislature to enter into discussion with the League and other Public safety stakeholders to identify and implement strategies that will reduce the unintended negative impacts of existing criminal law.

- Fundamental changes Due to AB 109 and Propositions 47 and 57
 - AB 109: Transferred nearly 45,000 felons from the State prison system to local jail systems, resulting in lower-level criminals being released early
 - Proposition 47: Reclassified and downgraded a number of serious crimes from felonies to misdemeanors.
 - Proposition 57: Allows the State to provide for the release of up to 30,000 criminals convicted of “non-violent” felonies.

Resolutions

- The Public Policy Institute of California reports that since 2015:
 - California has experienced an increase in overall crime
 - Property crime is up 145%
 - Violent crime is up 54%
 - One in four Californians view violence and street crime in their community as a substantial problem
 - Arrests dropped 31% for property crimes and 68% for drug offenses (due to Prop. 47)
 - The report concludes auto theft increase is a direct result of AB 109

Resolutions

- Resolution of the League of California Cities supporting legislation amending Government Code Section 38611 to clarify the definition of local control providing broad statutory authority for local officials to determine emergency service levels and direct emergency medical response within their jurisdictions.
- Calls for the Governor and the Legislature to work with the League and other stakeholders to amend Government Code 38611 clarifying the definition of local control, provide broad statutory authority for local officials to determine emergency service levels and direct emergency medical response.
