La Palma's Holiday Giving Tree

LA PALMA, Calif. – The City of La Palma has selected families from local schools to assist in making the holidays merrier. City of La Palma staff, individuals, groups, community members, and local businesses are all asked to participate in this festive and gratifying program by purchasing a gift for someone on the giving tree.

Working with our local schools to identify community members in need, ornaments have been placed on holiday trees in the Community Services Department (7821 Walker Street), the Police Department (7792 Walker Street) and the City Hall (7822 Walker Street) lobbies. Each ornament states the gender and age of a child or adult, or a particular item that was requested.

Stop by and select an ornament(s), purchase your gift, and return it unwrapped to any Department listed above by December 17, 2017. In order for us to be certain it gets to the correct beneficiary, please do not forget to attach the original ornament to your unwrapped gift! La Palma is fortunate to have so many caring people sharing and bringing joy to those in need in our community.
